EMIGRANT BUSINESS

Western Railways Engaged in a Fight Over the Question.

The Clearing House Agreement Involved -National Educational Association May Not Secure Low Rates.

The Western passenger lines were in session at Chicago yesterday with several emigrant agents from New York. The chief question at issue was whether the emigrant agents in general and Peter McDonnell, in particular, are to ride two horses or only one-whether he is to divide his business between the association and the Union Pacific, or allow either one to handle it; and, if so, which one. The conference was very animated, but nothing definite had been determined when the meeting adjourned to meet again to-day. The Union Pacific is charged with paying higher commissions for the business than the association lines, and if McDonnell is not made to stick by one side or the other an interesting fight will be on in defense of the clearinghouse agreement. The Eastern committee of the Western Passenger Association has not yet de-cided to grant the National Educational Association a rate of one fare for the round trip to Duluth. The meeting will not be but will probably go to Detroit. Another meeting of the committee will be held to-

Personal, Local and General Notes. The Evansville & Terre Haute earned in 1893 $1,385,783, an increase over 1892 of $85,600. General Passenger Agent Palmer, of the Evansville & Terre Haute, was in the city yesterday on official business.

Receiver Hopkins, of the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis, has borrowed $30, 000 with which to pay the employes. The Wabash earned in the first week of January $186,600, a decrease as compared with last year, same week, of $51,210. Q. Hicks, general yardmaster of the Big Four, went East last night, accompanied by his wife, to take a week's rest.

I. D. Baldwin has just closed his tenth year as district passenger agent of the Monon, with headquarters at Indianapolis. The local sleeper between Indianapolis and St. Louis, over the Big Four, has been on two months and is doing a very satisfactory business.

The Central Traffic Association lines and the Southwestern lines will meet in St. Louis, Jan. 17, to arrange a basis of rates and divisions to Texas points.

The first week in January the gross earnings of the Chicago & Northwestern were $220,000 as compared with the first week of January, 1892, and those of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul were short $176,844. The new ten-wheel freight engines which the Peoria & Eastern received from the Brooks locomotive works a few weeks ago are doing excellent service. These engines weigh 135,000 pounds, and have 19x24-inch The higher officials of the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore & Ohio, the Erie, the Lake Shore and several other lines are in ses-coal and coke. William Green, general manager of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, is expected home from New York to-day, and next week some definite action will be taken as regards the erection of the new city freight sion at Philadelphia, considering the advisability of reducing rates on iron, steel, depot at Indianapolis. George Challiss, of Atchison, has invented an automatic car coupler which experts say is destined to be universally adopted, so simple yet effective is it, and its cost so low. The Missouri Pacific has adopted it for all of its new equipment. M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four, says it is not definitely settled whether a dividend will be paid on Feb. 1 on the common stock or not. The common has dropped on a rumor that dividends on such stock were to be suspended. At nearly all stations on the Monon ticket agents show larger receipts for business in December, 1893, than in the same month of 1892, and this can only be accounted for by the great exemption from accidents the road has enjoyed the last twelve H. E. Stevenson has been appointed agent of the Indianapolis & Vincennes, vice J. G. Arnold. The latter has been in the service of the company many years, and retires on account of ill health, C. C. Reisner has been appointed agent at Bruceville, vice J. T. Willis, resigned to engage in business

Talk of the disruption of the Central Traffic Association is branded as nonsensical by Pittsburg railroad officials. They regard the report as without foundation, as the railroads are loval to the association since it has proven of great value to the lines in it by maintaining rates and in various directions.

Inquiry develops the fact that the divi-dend declared by the directors of the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago on Thursday was the first dividend ever paid to common or preferred stockholders. Starting off with a 114 per cent. dividend leads to the belief that the preferred stockholders may look for 3 per cent. dividends annually. H. C. Parker, traffic manager of the Lake Erie & Western, says he strongly favors the proposed plan of the trunk lines and the roads in the Central Traffic Association territory of dividing the business, and thinks it the only plan by which rates can be placed on a reasonable basis and maintained, but he fears the conditions are such that it will be almost impossible to bring about such a reform at the present time. General Manager Barnard, of the Peorla & Eastern, yesterday returned from a three days' trip over the western division. He says should the weather continue as favorable for outdoor work as at present, the cut-off at Danville will be completed by the middle of February. When this is completed it will relieve the company of one of its heavy grades, reducing it for five miles an average of thirty feet to the mile. At the annual meeting of the Mexico, Cuernavaca & Pacific railroad, held in Denver yesterday, J. H. Hampson was elected president. The road is now completed across the high mountain range from Mexico City southwesterly to Cuernavaca, a distance of about sixty miles. Its ultimate destination is the Pacific coast, at a point about four or five hundred miles from the City of Mexico. Under the agreement of Eastern roads no freight which reached them after Thursday would be taken at the reduced rates of the last thirty days, consequently the Western termini of Eastern lines were yesterday glutted with freight in transit, the Pennsylvania lines having thousands of carloads of freight in the yards of the western terminals of its lines. It will be some days before the trunk lines are cleared of this accumulated business. On Jan. 15 the Union Pacific will place on sale 3,000-mile books at 2½ cents per mile, good on any part of its system. The limit of time to use the book is one year, and the holder has the privilege of carry-ing 250 pounds of baggage. This step is taken by the Union Pacific to court the good will of the traveling salesmen, and is really a reduction, as, over some portions of the system, 3 and 4 cents per mile has heretofore been paid on mileage books. A business man, and one well up in railroad matters, who does not speak rashly, says that twenty-five years from now the terminals of the C., C., C. & St. L. will have a cash value as great as the present bonded debt. At all important points its terminal facilities are second to none. cited the valuable property the Big Four now owns at Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland and other points. The value of this property now runs up into the millions. Several times in the last few years ladies connected with the Women's Christian Temperance Association have been instrumental in getting reinstated men who were discharged from the Baltimore & Ohio road for being intoxicated. Last week one of the kindly inclined ladies called upon President Mayer to get a man reinstated, and he gave her plainly to understand that the influence she had exerted in this direction in behalf of some of the employes who had been so unfortunate as to lose their positions for too free use of intoxicants, would no longer safe, sure and cheap. Any druggist will get be entertained. He had, he said, given strict orders that no employe who was discharged | it for you if you ask him.

on account of the use of intoxicants should be reinstated, and any official who disobeyed his order in this matter would be promptly

James McCrea, of the Pennsylvania lines; John Newell, of the Lake Shore; M. E. In-galls, of the Big Four; E. B. Thomas, of the Erie, and President Mayer, of the Baltimore & Ohio, regard the Patterson bill, which has already been introduced in Congress, as the most important proposed since the passage of the interstate-commerce act. The bill is a series of amendments to the interstate-commerce act. Attorneys of prominence, as well as high railway officials, express the belief that the proposed amendments are the only means of really enforcing the intent of the act.

JANUARY MAGAZINES.

The illustrations in the Cosmopolitan, while not representing, perhaps, highly artistic and expressive processes, have a charm of their own, and this is shown at its best in W. D. Howells's "Bit of Altruria in New York." The scenes from Central Park, which are in his "Altruria" are very pleasing. T. C. Crawford describes some French pantomime artists and urges a revival of that form of entertainment in this country. Captain Charles King has a paper on "Long Distance Riding," with drawings by Remington. "Our Lady of the James," better known as Pocahontas, is the subject of an article by Marion Harland. In her essay on "Humor-English and American," Agnes Repplier is hardly at her best. St. George Mivart writes of "God's Will and Human Happiness." Several short stories and poems make up the

The North American Review for January gives the first place to Chairman Wilson to discuss "Income Tax on Corporations." "Republicanism in Brazil," by the Brazilian Minister: "The Roman Catholic Church and the School Fund," by the Bishop of Albany; "How to Prevent a Money Famine," by the Controller of the Currency; "The Hawaiian Question," by Frederic R. Coudert, are subjects of general interest. The article of the ridiculous Governor of Colorado, "Are the Silver States Ruined?" is offset by one by ex-Speaker Reed, "Tariff and Business." Prof. Briggs, who has been convicted of heresy contributes an article which should be of interest to Sunday school teachers using the international lessons. There are other papers making the January number an exceptionally good one. Published at No. 3 East Fourteenth street, New York.

What promises to be an interesting account of some studies of the occult is begun in the Arena, by Heinrich Hensoldt, under the title "Among the Adepts of Serinagur." Stinson Jarvis has a concluding paper giving his conclusions derived from experiments with hypnotism. A curious article by James R. Coche treats of "The Voice as an Index of the Soul," the same being judged from the standpoint of a blind man. Other subjects discussed are "The True Education and the False," "The Higher Criticism," "The Land Question and Its Relation to Art and Literature,"-this by Hamlin Garland-"Silver in England" and "Natural Monopolies and the State."

George Du Maurier's serial story "Trilby," charmingly illustrated by the author, opens in the January Harper and promises to be of much interest. Four short stories make up the fiction of the number. Among the more serious articles are "Egypt and Chaldea in the Light of Recent Discoveries," "Capt. Napoleon Bonaparte at Tou-lon," "The Dutch Influence in New Eng-"Capt. Napoleon Bonaparte at Touland" and "The Mission of the Jews." Edwin Lord Weeks continues the account of his travels, this time going "From Ispahan to Kurrachee." Brander Matthews offers another series of "Vignettes of Manhattan" and Richard Harding Davis gives his impressions of the east and west ends of London.

The New England Magazine for January contains a sympathetic biographical sketch of the recently deceased author, Edwin Lasseter Bynner, written by Edward Everett Hale. B. P. Shillaber, better known to fame as "Mother Partington," gives a chapter of his journalistic reminiscences. The Boston and Liverpool packet lines is the subject of a paper by Hon. H. A. Hill. Considerable space is given to a "write up' of Springfield, Mass., and other features with a local coloring go to make up a periodical which well represents New England thought and enterprise. Boston.

The Etude is of practical use both to teachers and students of music, being free from the theatrical and advertising features that make up so large a part of many so-called musical periodicals. Well-known artists and instructors give its readers the benefit of their knowledge and experience. Subjects discussed in the January issue are: "Musical Examinations," "Mannerisms," "A Plea for Better Teaching" and "The Work of the Country Music Teacher." John S. Van Cleve offers some advice to pupils, and C. W. Landon some hints to young teachers. Philadelphia.

Among the selections from English periodicals in the January Eclectic are "A Defense of Classical Study," by Professor Jebb: "Socialism in France," by Yres Guyot: "Gleanings from the Papyri," by J. P. Mahaffy, and "Superstition and Fact," by Andrew Lang. Other interesting papers are a biographical sketch of Elizabeth Inchbald, some recollections of Dr. John Brown, a chapter of the early life of Pepvs and studies of the lives of George Fox, founder of the Quaker sect, and of Gounod, the composer. No. 144 Eighth street New York.

Aside from its complete novel "The Colonel," Lippencott for January devotes considerable space to fiction. The first chapters of a serial by Gilbert Parker promise an interesting if not exciting story of the experience of a young man reared in the Canadian wilderness and then transferred to the home of his titled grandfather in England. Molly Elliot Seawell has a pleasant short story. Mrs. John Sherwood has a chapter of recollections of famous actresses and Thomas Chalmers writes of "the Christian Endeavor Era."

Relief for the unemployed and relief work in general are subjects of discussion in special papers in the January Review of Reviews. Mr. Stead has a character sketch of some length of Lord and Lady Aberdeen. This is followed by a discussion of the mission and destiny of Canada. An unusual number of excellent portraits of wellknown people are given in this number. No. 13 Astor place, New York.

Donahoe's Magazine is published in the interests of the Catholic Church, but has some excellent literary and artistic features of general interest, and which give it a place among household periodicals. articles in the current issue having a bearing on church questions are entitled "Germany and the Catholic party," and "Are Catholic Tolerant?" Boston.

The Decorator and Furnisher for January is devoted almost exclusively to interior decoration of homes. Many valuable hints on artistic furnishing, both in simple and elaborate style, can be found in this magazine. Art Trades Publishing Company.

A New Certain Cure for Piles.

We do not intend to endorse any except ar ticles of genuine merit; we therefore take pleasure in recommending to sufferers from Piles in any form, a prompt and permanent cure. The following letters speak for them-

Mrs. Mary C. Tyler, of Heppner, Ore. writes: One pkg. of Pyramid Pile Cure entirely cared me of piles from which I have suffered for years, and I have never had the slightest return from them since. Mr. E. O'Brien, Rock Bluff's, Neb., says: The

pkg. of Pyramic Pile Cure entirely removed every trace of itching piles, I cannot thank you enough for it. The Pyramid Pile Cure is a new, certain painless cure for every form of piles. It i Marital Troubles Spread Upon the Records of the Courts.

Bank Wreckers to Plead To-Day-Again Given Damages-Louis Snyder Indicted for Murder.

Yesterday was a busy day in the divorce mills and several persons spread their marital woes upon record. The first to complain of her marriage contract and ask to be placed in statu quo, as nearly as a court of justice could do so, was Jennie Rogers. In her complaint for divorce from James C. Rodgers she alleges marriage on Oct. 27, 1873. Now after the lapse of twenty years she seeks absolution from the obligations imposed by the marriage contract. She avers that for more than two years past her husband has failed to make provision for his family; that he is an habitual drunkard and that he has treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner. In addition to release from the marriage contract she asks that she be given custody of their only child, Sadie Rogers.

Belle M. McCoy was the next person to complain of an unequal bargain. She and Elmus M. McCoy were married at Pawnee City, Neb., on Dec. 4, 1882. On June 20, 1885, she alleges, her husband abandoned her and the abandonment has continued ever since that time. On account of the abandonment she asks that she be released from the contract entered into eleven years

The third case brought in to form a part of the court records was that of John E. Stoop against Emma E. Stoop. He alleges that, about ten years ago, he married the defendant and had been a good and faithful husband during all of that period. On the other hand, he averred the defendant had treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner, in that she had called him vile and opprobrious names and, at divers times, had threatened to poison him.

A few minutes after the suit for divorce was placed on file the defendant in the divorce suit, Emma E. Stoop, appeared of record as the plaintiff in a suit against her husband and Kingan & Co. for support. She alleged that, in October, 1893, her husband and Kingan & Co. band abandoned her and her three-year-old child without making any provision for their support. Kingan & Co. were made defendants to answer as to funds belong ing to her husband alleged to be in their hands. She averred that the company was indebted to him in the sum of $100, which amount she asks they be required to pay into the court, to be held subject to any judgment she may recover against her husband. She asks that he be required to pay her $10 per week for the support of herself and child.

Asks $10,000 Damages. Vida Shane, as the administratrix of the estate of James Shane, deceased, yesterday filed suit against the Big Four company for $10,000 for causing the death of Shane. The deceased was employed as brakeman in the Big Four yards and while coupling cars, on Aug. 4, 1893, received the injuries from which he afterward died. The complaint alleges that immediately after receiving the injury Shane asked to be taken to St. Vincent's Hospital on a locomotive standing near by and that James Hickey, the yard master, refused to send the locomotive, but telephoned for an ambulance to remove him. The complaint alleges that it was more than one hour after receiving the injury before Shane was finally taken to the hospital and during the interval he had lost such large quantity of blood and the wound had become so poisoned from the exposure to the air that it was impossible to save his life. The Grand Jury's Work. The grand jury made its final report yesterday afternoon and adjourned. The report shows witnessed examined, 213; indictments returned, 41; cases continued, 9; cases dismissed, 8. They failed to indict and recommended the discharge of John Holt, arrested for petit larceny; Clarence Woods, grand larceny; Noah Russell, petit larceny; Andrew L. Seers, assault and battery with intent to kill; William Davis, petit larceny; William Baker, grand larceny. Indictments were returned as follows: James Howard and James Woods, grand larceny; Woodley Simmons, petit larceny; William Allen, petit larceny; Mike Cline, petit larceny; Louis Snyder, murder; Perry Carrathers and William Dickinson, petit larceny; Joe Kiker, petit larceny; Pleas Glenn, petit larceny; John Poole, petit larceny;

Ed Jones, petit larceny. Again Given Damages.

For the second time Mrs. Annie Smith has been given judgment in the Hendricks Circuit Court against the Monon for $4,000. The suit was one for damages growing out of the wrecking of a wagon in which Mrs. Smith and her son were riding and injuries received by the son. The case was tried before and judgment given for the plaintiff. The company appealed to the Supreme Court and the case was sent back on error and tried a second time, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff for the same Mail Robber Pleads Guilty. Leonard Van Winkle, who was arrested some six weeks ago on a charge of robbing the mails at Selvin, Warrick county, pleaded guilty before Judge Baker, in the federal court, yesterday, and was sentenced to the Reform School at Plainfield. He is fourteen years old and will remain at the Reform School until of age. The boy was employed to carry the mail to and from the station at Selvin, and while so engaged got into the habit of rifling letters. He has been in jail here since his arrest.

Declared Insane.

Edmund Crosdale, a former employe of Murphy, Hibben & Co., residing at Mapleton, was declared insane yesterday. Since losing his position he has had periodical fits of insanity, during which he becomes very angry with his wife and children. During rational periods he has frequently requested his wife to keep away from him during the time he is irrational. He imagines that his friends are trying to swindle him out of his property. He was removed to the asylum yesterday afternoon. Snyder Indicted.

Among the indictments returned by the grand jury yesterday was one against Louis Snyder for the murder of Ollie A. Cloud on the night of Saturday, Dec. 30 James Wallace and James Woods were indicted for grand larceny. They are the two men who are supposed to have stolen the diamond pin from Barney Schoenfield on a College-avenue car on the night of Vincennes Bank Wreck.

Judge Baker, of the federal court, has approved the sale of $10,000 worth of real estate by Thomas R. Paxton, receiver of the Vincennes National Bank. He has also allowed Morris, Newberger & Curtis, Duncan & Smith, and Wm. A. Ketcham $5,250 for services as attorneys for the unsecured creditors of the Indianapolis Car Manufacturing Company.

Susannah Webber was yesterday given a verdict against the Citizens' Street-railroad Company for damages in the sum of $1 800 She was injured while attempting to alight from an East Washington-street car, at the corner of Noble and Washington streets.

Given Damages.
